

DIVINE HEALING

A book channeled by the higher spheres of light.

All that matters in life is what we give to others.

Life has led you to discover this book; there are no coincidences.

The forces of divine angelic healing are currently at work all over this sphere. The great karmic wheel is coming to an end.

This book serves as a manual, methods of healing, entirely free.

You who have sought, you have found.

You who have asked, you receive.

Here are the keys to healing, among the most powerful, transcribed here.

1 - The power of repeated prayer : « GOD PURIFY ME »

In this dark age that will eventually see the definitive arrival of divine angelic celestial light in all its forms, incarnating, settling, and taking place on your sphere, the recitation « GOD PURIFY ME » leads to a phenomenal number of miracles. It is so because this recitation will cause the reciter to receive God's energy continuously in their soul and consciousness. All their cells will then daily bathe in a divine bath operated solely by God or the Source, if you prefer. We are increasingly witnessing miraculous healings around the globe since the transmission of this simple phrase. Any person who diligently repeats this request will continually receive, each time they ask, the Divine and Celestial energy of the Creator, the Source.

The healing will then operate on all levels: the soul, the being, the mind, the psyche, the body's cells, the energetic bodies, what you call in your culture « chakras », various and varied problems will be reduced or even dissolved (depending on whether the person recites long enough and integrates the various changes to be made to their being and behavior).

This total reset of the being is possible by God's supreme divine grace. For this creation belongs to the Divine. The divine has all power over matter.

Invoke, in addition to God, his angels, his ascended masters, his protectors, his high and divine spheres of light of all kinds, if you wish. You can add them to the prayer, such as : « God, angels, archangels, purify me ».

The purification will not cease until the various troubles have been dissolved in the love of God. The divine energy will work tirelessly for your full and complete HEALING. You can also add other requests, but « GOD PURIFY ME » is really the best in most cases, as it is the simplest to continuously pronounce.

You can add, for example : « God, Angels, Archangels, purify me, protect me, heal me, grace me ».

If you wish to heal someone : « God purify heal First Name + Last Name + Relation (sister/ brother/parent/friend/etc) ».

These simple recitations are of unparalleled power until now. Try them for yourself, and you will directly notice. It is so simple that people struggle to believe it works, yet it does.

You can now heal yourself and your surroundings. Note that these prayers are also feasible with your pets, but also objects (of all kinds), and everything that exists in this beautiful infinite world.

2 - THE PRAYER FOR DISSOLVING DISEASES :

In many cases, the prayer « God purify me » will be enough to resolve various problems.

But in the case of cancer or a serious illness, in addition to the appropriate dietary treatment, it will be of utmost importance not to underestimate targeting the disease itself in your request to God.

Here are specific examples: for instance, if Martin, my big brother, has bone cancer:

« God, heal strengthen protect the bones of Martin my big brother »

« God, purify cleanse heal and transmute into pure light the bone cancer of Martin my big brother »

« God, dissolve the disease of Martin my big brother »

As with « God purify me », recite the prayer as much as possible. The more you say it, the more it will take effect.

Any disease can be reduced like this. They can even heal. In the case of a more severe and desperate pathology, do not slacken in the recitation of the prayers.

From a psychological point of view, do not confuse affirmation and prayer. Prayer calls upon God. The affirmation sends the information to the psyche, which influences the cells of the human body. For any positive affirmation, do not use any negative words. Say « I am in perfect health » and not « I am not sick. » This is very important because the brain does not distinguish between true and false; everything is just information.

It is also important to remember that diet plays a primary role in healing, but I will not go into the subject as there are other qualified people for that.

Joy, laughter, and happiness must also be at the forefront in healing a person, whether a parent, friend, or even a medical patient. A happy person will heal; an unhappy person will find it really more difficult because unhappiness is related to the soul. If the soul is constrained for various reasons and these constraints plunge it into unhappiness, it can result in diseases or various problems. Many have understood this for a long time; you can be inspired by the experience of Louise Hay, for example, who, through her awareness, her complete change in perspective on her life and life in general, and also through her constant positive affirmations, an adapted diet, and various treatments, was able to completely heal the cancer she had.

⚠ Warning: This should not replace appropriate treatment if you know of any.

It should be noted that these prayers can be performed for all types of living beings but do not replace appropriate treatment. It is a complement, which in some cases is enough.

The very structure of objects can also be modified by a sufficiently large number of prayers because they are made up of atoms, of various molecules, which will be bathed in God's energy. Certain machines (like computers, phones, batteries, cables, cars, etc.) can thus be improved.

3 - THE PERMANENT BROADCAST OF A HEALING PRAYER

Here is the simplest step, disconcerting for many people because it is so simple and miraculous. Indeed, the repeated broadcast of a prayer recorded in audio form creates a number of miracles similar to those repeated by oneself. It is not necessary to listen to the audio prayer when it is broadcast if the words chosen in the prayer are very precise. For example, if it is said in the prayer that God heals all those who hear this prayer, then if you do not listen to it at the time it is broadcast, it will have less effect in terms of miracles.

However, if you add the terms in the prayer: « God heal me First Name + Last Name no matter where I am » then the effects will be gigantic because the repeated audio broadcast will act no matter where you are. You will not need to listen to it, and you can let it play in a "loop" mode day and night.

God loves to act for your good and will be pleased to do so if you ask Him. Why believe that it has to be complicated. You just need to try it yourself, you will find that this technique works, not because you have faith or because you believe in it, but because God (or the Source, whatever name you give it) does indeed exist and it is always a pleasure for Him to help you.

The mechanism of the repeated audio prayer in "loop" mode actually makes a permanent request to the Divine Source, to God. This is why the prayer is constantly renewed in many esoteric currents, as well as in many religions. Although they have their own flaws, they lead participants in these methods to transcend a huge part of their karmas because they call upon, whether they realize it or not, the Divine Source, God, who has all power over matter. By continually asking for help, God helps them constantly.

This is why you must realize the importance of words. Many say that only intention counts. But this is not the case. Intention has its place, an enormous place. But intention is not above the final action. What counts the most is what you do; intention does not change action. Intention can give birth to a healthier direction, it can attract many virtues, solutions of all kinds, to the one who practices it, it can lead to the Heart, to the essential, but intention will be limited because in the end, it is the action you take that will act the most on the matter, although in some cases intention, which is a form of action, will act more than the action itself, but in the sense that intention modifies the action it generates. The intention to be at peace leads the participant to have a more serene life because he will then modify his actions, but acting peacefully directly is the final result. This is why action predominates over everything else.

So, you must realize that in many cases intention will not be enough to change your lives. It will help you, of course, even enormously, and can create miraculous transformations in every way. A simple intention can miraculously heal someone or attract the appropriate solutions to them. But most of the time, you can see it for yourselves in your life and in the lives of others, waiting patiently without action for the intention to do the work leads nowhere, or only allows a few new steps, but not to reach the golden age we are heading towards. It's up to you to see what you want because free will is in play on this Earth.

To return to the continuous broadcast of an audio prayer, here is other essential information:

Firstly, you will find voice recorders (to record the prayers you write yourselves) for free on the internet. You just need to search on a search engine: Free online voice recorder (or to download depending on what you prefer) and you will find it directly.

Then, it is very important to always target the priority problems in your requests. Either a classic treatment is enough to sweep the aura of the being of all problems combined, in which case simple classic healing prayers will suffice, such as :

« Divine Source, God Father Mother Creator, Angels, Archangels, purify me protect me heal me grace me I First Name + Last Name, transmute all my diseases and all my pains into pure light, bless my being in all dimensions, purify cleanse heal and transmute into pure light all the cells of my physical body, as well as my etheric, energetic, astral, causal bodies, chakras, in all dimensions, as well as my entire being, in all dimensions, I thank you »

Or it will be necessary to particularly target the disturbing elements, in the case of an endocrine problem for example, do as follows :

« Divine Source, God Father Mother Creator, Angels, Archangels, heal cleanse purify transmute into pure light all my hormones of I First Name + Last Name, dissolve all diseases in my body in the name of the Holy Supreme Divine Source, heal sweep cleanse all cells in my body, increase my vibrational rate and my divine energy to the maximum, connect my soul to my being completely so that I receive its messages easily and continuously, bless my entire existence and totally grace my being in all dimensions, I thank you »

Thus, the endocrine problem will be reduced by 1/4 in the short term if the practitioner lets the audio prayer play continuously day and night.

For a prayer to be broadcast continuously, you just need to find an audio player that offers a "loop" mode, so you will not have to do anything once it starts.

You can also record an audio prayer for many people simultaneously or for a particular person. Always take the time to write your prayers distinctly, make them simple, explicit, very precise, and choose the right words. This will create more miracles than you think.

Example No. 1 : Prayer for dissolving diseases in the case of a stomach ulcer of a relative, for example, Cristophe Lapierre my uncle :

« Divine Source, God Father Mother Creator, Angels, Archangels, heal cleanse purify transmute into pure light all the stomach ulcer of Cristophe Lapierre my uncle, bless him heal him purify him protect him grace him divinely in all dimensions, remove all the causes that caused his illness and heal him definitively, purify cleanse heal all his etheric, energetic, astral, causal bodies, chakras, as well as all the cells of his body, and his entire being. Connect his soul to his being completely, that he be blessed and healed continuously every second, thank you »

Example No. 2 : Prayer for help and protection for a troubled child, if it is your own child for example :

« Divine Source, God Father Mother Creator, Angels, Archangels, protect guide help grace divinely First Name + Last Name + my child, remove all his problems in the name of the Holy Supreme Divine Source, guide him towards Divine Love, send him as much love, light, happiness, and joy as possible, make him meet the people who will truly help him on his life path, and make him realize that he is what he seeks above all, that is to say, love incarnated in a human body. Permanently solve all his problems. Purify him protect him heal him grace him divinely in all dimensions, as well as all his etheric, energetic, astral, causal bodies, chakras, all the cells of his body, as well as his being in all dimensions, I thank you. »

Example No. 3 : A group prayer for several people at once :

« Divine Source, God Father Mother Creator, Angels, Archangels, remove all the combined problems of these different people I am about to name, heal them, grace them, purify them, protect them, bless them, and this in all possible dimensions, send them as much love, light, happiness, and joy as possible, increase their vibrational rates to the maximum, make them experience divine abundance in all its forms, and also purify cleanse heal all the cells of their physical bodies, as well as all their auras, etheric, energetic, astral, causal bodies, chakras, as well as all their beings in all dimensions. I ask that this be done in the name of the Holy Supreme Divine Source, for:

List the First Names and Last Names: 30 maximum. You can also include your own.

It is accomplished in the name of the Holy Divine Source, the golden age is king.
Heal grace purify protect in the name of the Holy Divine Source all that exists also in all dimensions.

Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you »

4 - HOW TO CHANNEL MESSAGES FROM THE DIVINE SOURCE DIRECTLY ?

By accepting that the Divine Source is ready to help you and means you no harm. Many people are blocked at the idea of channeling, receiving a message from the Source, because they unconsciously think, without necessarily realizing it, that they are not worthy of receiving a message from the Source, that they are not worthy of receiving help, etc.

When you accept and understand that you are the Divine Source, God, incarnated in a body of flesh, then you will love yourself as He loves you. You are not God in His entirety, of course, you do not control the movements of the planets, the wind, the waters, the seas, you do not control Life. But you are a part of God, and you have the chance, be grateful, to experience reality through the human form, which, even if it includes its share of physical sufferings—psychological sufferings not being necessary under normal circumstances—is a divinely extraordinary chance.

Now, proceed as follows to channel-receive a message from the Almighty:

Settle down comfortably, relax your body, relax.

Then, simply ask the questions you have.

Ask one thing at a time, and listen to the answers that come to you.

To avoid altering the reception of the message, you must completely let life take its course. No thought should be emitted by your own will, otherwise you will interfere with the answers that come to you, whether positively, neutrally, or negatively. Let the natural flow of things take its course and accept to receive this gift that the Source is giving you. Let it transmit to you the answers it has to give you. Let it show you its love, its tenderness, its Joy, ITS KINGDOM.

Thus you will be continually blessed, and you will face each difficulty differently from those who are not aware of this blessing that life is.

To perfect your mastery of receiving messages from the Source, practice with simple questions, ask the same ones many times, and compare the answers. You can ask, for example:

- « Divine Source, what should I prioritize in my life? »
- « Divine Source, how can I improve my life and those of my loved ones? »
- « Divine Source, how can I realize your existence and no longer doubt it? »
- « Divine Source, what are the most important things in the world? »
- « Divine Source, why is there so much misery in the world? »
- « Divine Source, what are the best foods for my health? »
- « Divine Source, what activities can I do to flourish my being? »
- « Divine Source, where should I go to perfect my education? »
- « Divine Source, what should I read to perfect my mastery of such and such a subject? »
- « Divine Source, how can I help this or that person (say the name if necessary) who is suffering? »
- « Divine Source, how can I help the people of the earth, the animals, the plants, nature in all its forms? »
- « Divine Source, how is it that we have not succeeded in creating peace on earth? »

Here is a list of many questions that you can practice asking dozens and dozens of times, calmly, and listen in all tranquility to the answers that come to your inner self. You can also, it may be worth it, open a text document on your computer and channel, through writing, the words that come to you, this may be simpler for many people. You can also do it on paper, of course.

To perfect your mastery of receiving-channeling messages from the Divine Source, it is preferable to ask one question at a time, and several times, to confirm or disconfirm the answer obtained, as it is easy to project what one believes or thinks into the obtained answer. Asking the same question several times reduces these risks of interference.

You can also call upon God, the angels, the archangels, the galactic confederation, the Pleiadians, Jesus Christ, Sananda, Mary, and all other guides, ascended masters, beings of light. It is important to note that you can more easily receive an unaltered answer from a benevolent entity when you call upon the Divine Source only.

You can make many prayers before and after to increase your vibrational rate and increase the possibility of receiving true answers. If you have doubts about the source of the answers, ask again, if you are still unsure, do something else, and try again the next day.

It is possible through channeling-receiving messages from the Divine Source to receive answers on all types of subjects, ranging from the most scientific to the most esoteric. You must really be internally free if you do not want to receive false information. Otherwise, you will really channel what your mental barriers tell you. For example, if you have seen a miracle happen before your eyes and have seen Jesus restore sight to a blind man, then you will say in channeling, if you are not channeling correctly, « Yes it is possible, I saw it », but if you have not seen it, you will say « No it is impossible, it would be otherwise ». In these two cases, you will receive the answer from your mind, you will project what you think and believe without sometimes even realizing it.

This is why you must be as free as the air, totally free from all dogmas, concepts, beliefs. It is preferable, if anything, to opt for a positive and constructive open-mindedness where one accepts the fact that with God, the Divine Source, everything is possible.

Without any kind of beliefs, it will be very possible to obtain the True Answer that the Divine Source will offer you. But if you think miracles are impossible, you will have a very hard time receiving the truth from the Divine Source.

This is why, once again, you must be totally independent of all systems, all methods, all teachings, and all doctrines, otherwise you will never discover the truth about life, about existence, and you will never really channel what the Divine Source is telling you, because you will constantly, consciously and/or unconsciously, modify what the Divine Source will transmit to you as answers.

So accept this Great Love, let go of all remorse, all fears, all guilt, all doubts, because everything is possible with the Divine Source, everything.

You are worthy enough to receive all the gifts that the Divine Source has to offer you, do not doubt it. Repeat it as a positive affirmation if it makes you feel good:

« I am worthy enough to receive all the gifts that the Divine Source has to offer me »

5 - THE DIVINE QUESTION

The question of existence takes on its full meaning when one follows their heart. As long as a person does not follow the light that inhabits their soul, darkness prevails, and the question remains: What is existence? It is normal not to understand the room one is in if the light is not there, as humans cannot see in the dark, not all of them at least.

So, shed light on your inner being, in your lives, illuminate your lantern, find refuge within love, for that is what you are. Then your lives will shine with a thousand lights, and you will be able to understand the real world.

Understanding the world stems from the inner brightness of the being. It is the inner light that is the True Intelligence and that enables the brain to decipher the world. When the light is gone, the soul leaves this body. Life continues its Work elsewhere. Light is Life. It is what guides us through this body at every stage so that our soul can fulfill what it is here to do. That is why all animal species have an extremely intuitive intelligence, characterized by an extraordinary development of their senses, allowing them to survive on this earth. It is the light that develops their abilities so that they can protect themselves from the reality of the external world. It is constantly the light that favors the right conditions for the development of the human genome, the DNA, which is one of the things you will need to pay attention to in the coming times, the Great Moments.

When you know what really happened during the Creation of the human species, and what the first bodies of human species were really made of, many will fall off their chairs. You must prepare by raising your vibrations to the maximum, through thought, through love, through selfless service to others and all beings in this world, through poetry in the heart that reflects outwardly in each of your actions, by following your divine intuitions and divine ideas. How to recognize them? By following selfless love, by externalizing these ideas through writing or speech and seeing the amount of light they contain, you will then see that God, the Divine Source, constantly communicates a thousand and one ways to improve your existence and help all the kingdom of the Living.

Now we come to the end of this dark chapter of history, and we enter a New Era, the age of the fish. Cycles are constant in the universe, but humanity is destined to disappear so that a new one can emerge. Of course, this does not mean physical disappearance, it is a metaphor. Humanity will die to itself, to be reborn from its ashes, and become a new humanity. Like all cells that die and are constantly reborn. It is a birth that, in the Divine Source's organizational chart, leaves no room for error. That is why you have these words and these dark and violent images that come to mind, the Source is preparing you for the worst so that you avoid it. It's like when you drive a car or perform a dangerous action, you have moments of fear that are actually moments of extreme Love, because it is the Divine Source that, out of love, tells you to be careful, by sending such and such images to your mind, so that you pay attention and avoid the danger.

So fear, in some cases, is an act of love, which serves to protect the body from irreversible physical dangers, so that the soul can continue what it incarnated for. Fear is pure information. When you transcend fear, the information remains, but you are no longer afraid of it. To transcend means to fully integrate the information, to become ONE with it, to live with it completely, unconditionally. That is why you see stuntmen performing impressive stunts without fear. They have managed to integrate and transcend fear, thanks to the Divine Source (whether they are aware of it or not) and live what their souls tell them to do, every activity in its place.

Stunts are a good way to understand the phenomenon of fear. Everyone loves to see them in movies, but no one would dream of living them, except those who are made for it. This is exactly because your body knows what is good for it and what is not. You all love to play with fear, as long as it remains joyful. That is why people watch horror movies, they are not really afraid, otherwise, they wouldn't watch them. When you see a movie that frightens you, that is always what happens. It is your soul experiencing fear without really living it.

That is why TV is so artificial. It will never offer the quantity and quality of the real world. And many, after a tough trial that life has offered them, willingly accept to see and admit that, even if it was hard, there is nothing better than what they experienced, simply because it was real. Of course, if it is too painful, it is different, everyone has their limit, the limit is simply related to the physical and mental capacities of the being. There are no other limits otherwise, which is why some saints manage to materialize objects or perform acts that you will call "miracles" because they transcend all your beliefs and concepts, what you are used to seeing. There have also been many crooks in history performing rigged tricks to make believe in a miracle, so stay vigilant.

The purpose of life, then, the purpose of existence, is none other than to experience reality through its five senses, whether through Joy, in Love, or through Suffering, in Fear. Neither of these two realities can exist simultaneously. That is why following Joy, which leads to Love, or Love, which leads to Joy, creates permanent miracles, because God hurries to grant your preferred reality. This mechanism is simply due to the soul recognizing itself as such and accepting to see its flaws, to bring them to light so that it transcends them. As soon as this is done, God no longer needs to make unpleasant situations happen for the soul to understand.

That is why all pain, if it is due to a misunderstanding, and in 90% of cases it is, can be lessened and healed in the long term when it is fully understood and fully integrated.

By pain, here we mean problems, recurring situations, illnesses, deaths, temporary halts in intelligence, foolishness in actions, words, speech, violence, hatred, taking everything literally, lack of empathy, etc.

Now, the love that inhabits you wants to tell you this: I love you

Listen to it, let it infuse into you. Raise your vibration rate in every way because we will need you when the events take place. And they are about to take place.

For those who pray, pray

The Divine Source loves you

6 - TAKING CARE OF OTHERS AS ONESELF

We now arrive at this penultimate chapter, and it should be remembered that the most essential KEYS are found in chapters 1, 2, and 3. Although the majority of answers lie within you, these keys are not well-known to the general public and are not sufficiently applied by all the souls who ask to receive these keys, which they naturally have within them, but cannot receive and integrate properly.

That is why we must not separate the outside from the inside !
Many reject the external world, separating themselves from the illusion of the world, and think they find refuge in a temple, in a monastery, in a church, in a mosque, in Tibet, in India, in the Himalayas, etc.

And too many also reject the inner world, which is the love of oneself, others, and the world around us in which we are.

That is why yin symbolizes the inside and yang the outside.
Reject one, and the other will hit you in the face.
If you reject the external world, how do you prepare for the storm ? Why abandon this world when you can offer the greatest Joy, which is Love, to it?

If you reject the inner world, how can you know yourself? And learn to love.

You will not be able to, in either case, live in the real world.
Those who say that God is not outside do not know what they are talking about.
Those who say He is only inside do not know either.

Because if you understand that it is love, which is life, that makes your heart beat, then it is as much within you as it is outside.

It is as much in your cells that work in unison to create your body at every moment as it is in your brother. The human body is ONE, which is what humanity ultimately strives towards.

In simpler terms : life, the Divine Source, God the Father Mother Creator, will give you the answers within yourself, or through an external element. There are no separations between beings, between life. There is a physical separation, a mental separation, a psychic separation, but there are no separations in the sense that everything that happens impacts everything that happens.

7 - ONE'S HOME IS ONESELF

The home is like your work, your creation: It is the place where you spend a large part of your time during your days or nights. That is why you must take great care of it, harmonize it, cherish it, and make it a beautiful place where you feel harmony reigning within the various rooms, with beautiful colors, beautiful objects, things that highlight harmony, happiness, joy, cheerfulness, beautiful things that fill you with happiness when you look at them.

This is fundamental and significantly increases one's vibrational rate.

Of course, the exterior is not everything. It is primarily within oneself that one must feel good. But as seen before, exterior and interior are ONE.

Thus, you cannot neglect the world in front of you, just as you cannot neglect all the beautiful inner world that resides within you. You must unite the two and accept to give as much importance to one as to the other.

The same goes for the clothes you wear. Imagine a person constantly dressed in a colorful, beautiful manner, with colors that fill the eyes of those who see them with pleasure and joy. Also, imagine a person dressed in a permanently dark manner. See the different impact. This has a real effect. It is not for nothing that chromotherapy (color therapy) exists. It is very important in the medium and long term to have beautiful clothes; it strongly influences matter over the years. It is like watching a beautiful television program about splendid animals or wonderful nature, or constantly watching false, dark, violent, sometimes even cruel, aggressive, harmful information, etc.

Nature loves its neighbor and provides the right amount of materials to each. Jesus, in the Bible, says : « Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they ? ... »

So do not fear what will come.

Love is king in this world.

Certainly, dark forces exert an illegitimate and more than harmful power, but it is love that reigns, it is love that is king, it is love that governs this world, it is love that triumphs, it is love that wins, because it is love that people want, it is love that makes us get up every morning, it is love that makes us surpass ourselves for ourselves and others, it is love that will conquer, it is love that wins, do not doubt it.

8 - Final Conclusion

Love yourself. Love your neighbor as yourself. Pray as much as you can. Have reverence for the animal world, the plant world, the mineral world; have love and compassion for all these beings who ask for nothing. When you notice that you are not in love, return to yourself, take a short moment of relaxation to center yourself, breathe, then ask your heart for forgiveness, and those whom you have wronged, return to yourself again, and then see what to do to repair what is damaged if there are things damaged. Heal all wounds, all bruises, all traumas, from now on, you have the keys to transcend all your problems, your sorrows, your inner darkness.

It is possible to transcend everything through the permanent giving of oneself to others, which will inevitably lead the soul to experience the most grandiose aspect of itself on Earth. Give and you will receive what you have given. If you do not have money, give some, and you will earn it when the time comes. If you do not have love, give some, and you will receive the amount given to others when the time comes. If you do not have light, give some, and you will receive it when the time comes. If you do not have anything, offer it to the world, and it will return it to you, multiplied by 3, because by giving anything, you will declare that you possess what you give, and life will then give you confirmation of what you possess, whether it is love, kindness, generosity, knowledge, intelligence, strength, money, material goods, and all sorts of other things. Giving what you wish to receive is the best way to get it unconditionally.

Ask and you shall receive
Seek and you shall find
Knock and it will be opened to you
